2. Pursuant to the investigation, SEBI initiated proceedings under sections 11(4)(b) and 11B of SEBI Act, 1992 read with regulation 11 of SEBI (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to Securities Market) Regulations, 2003 against the applicants. Show cause notices (hereinafter 'SCN') dated August 30, 2004 and September 17, 2004 were issued to the applicants. The applicants had replied to the show cause notices vide letter dated June 03, 2005 and June 06, 2005. Opportunities for personal hearing were granted on October 26, 2006, November 01, 2006, November 27, 2006 and December 14, 2006.
3. HFCL filed a writ petition before the Delhi High Court on December 26, 2006 seeking a stay on passing of the final order by SEBI, which was rejected by the Hon'ble High Court vide its order dated January 03, 2007. Against the aforementioned order of the High Court, a Writ Appeal (LPA 54/2007) was filed by HFCL before the Division Bench of Delhi High Court.
4. While the above proceedings were in progress, the applicants vide separate letters dated May 31, 2008, June 04, 2008 and June 05, 2008, proposed settlement of the said proceedings through a consent order in terms of SEBI circular No. EFD/ED/Cir-1/2007 dated April 20, 2007. The applicants proposed revised consent terms vide letter dated September 25, 2009. High Powered Advisory Committee constituted by SEBI considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the material brought before it by SEBI. The committee was of the view that the case may be settled if the applicants agreed to make payment of Rs. 10,00,00,000 (Rupees Ten Crore only) towards settlement charges. It was also recommended by the committee that the said amount was to be paid by the promoters of HFCL and not from the funds of HFCL. SEBI accepted the said recommendations and communicated the same to the applicants vide letter dated December 16, 2009.

5. Accordingly, the applicants, without admitting or denying the charges, have conveyed their acceptance of the aforesaid recommendations vide their letter dated December 30, 2009 and has remitted a sum of Rs.10,00,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Crore only) towards settlement charges vide demand drafts, details of which have been stated below, payable at Mumbai.
